SNHHBRA joins forces with students entering the trades!

Tom Lannon
- President, American Excavating Corp.

Tom Gardocki
Pinkerton committee chairman
- Interstate Landscape Company

Early in morning on April 19th, students prepared with resumes ready to discuss interviews as well as personal responsibility and integrity on the job. were lined up to have a chance at running jobs, internships and to learn about the an excavator that was on the grounds on construction business in a real world Pinkerton Academy, compliments of Tom setting. They had questions for our members and were enthusiastic about the career opportunities that exist after graduation.

Inside the Shepard Auditorium, SNHHBRA members were busily preparing for the Mini Trade Show to showcase their businesses to these students entering the trades.

Students entered the Trade Show

Key Note speaker Tom Lannon-president of American Excavating Corp. a graduate of Pinkerton Academy spoke to the students sharing his business success story and offering some helpful tips on preparing for

This event has been taking place for 18 years and continues to evolve each year to meet the needs of the students and building community. SNHHBRA is committed to supporting and encouraging these students, they are the future of our industry!

This special event can only take place with the generous support of our members!
