A Special Evening Under The Stars

The Home Builders Holiday Festival at Charmingfare Farm was held on December 2nd. It all began with a horse drawn wagon ride through the beautifully lit trails past the Reindeer barn and to the blazing bonfires. Our members could smell the delicious hot chili and chowder bubbling away while they enjoyed hot cocoa and hot cider (some with a little kick). The raffle tables were overflowing with beautifully wrapped gift baskets, gift cards and unique items. As always for those who like to gamble, we had the crowd favorite Lottery board raffle. Folks milled around from food to fire and enjoyed themselves while Holiday favorites could be heard. The S'more station was a popular spot and a sweet way to end our Holiday gathering!

A Special Evening Under The Stars

We want to thank everyone who participated by attending, donating, volunteering and sponsoring this very special event.

Apply Building Science to Achieve Sustainable Building Performance

Don't miss this special 2-hour presentation where you'll learn from Peter:

- New and old building products and systems
- How do we determine their contribution to high performance on their own
- How compatible are they all, including their durability
- WRBs – building paper, house wrap, SA, FA, ZIP et al...
- Tapes & Sealants
- Board sheathing, plywood, OSB, thermoply
- Rigid insulation – EPS, XPS, PI, mineral wool, phenolic
- Interior vapor retarders – kraft-facing, 6-mil PE, MemBrain, Intello, Majrex exterior rigid insulation choices / pros-cons

Peter Yost is back! A true building science expert and enthusiast, Peter has more than 30 years of experience in building, researching, writing, and consulting on high-performance structures. Peter offers expertise on everything from energy efficiency to moisture management and durability.
